

Singgih Budi Purnadi

My name is Singgih, a frontend developer for websites and mobile applications. I have successfully developed blockchain-based websites and achieved sales targets during ICO and private sales. I am proficient in programming languages such as PHP, JavaScript, and TypeScript, and have a good understanding of UI/UX. Additionally, I am familiar with tools and technologies such as Git, ReactJs, React Native, and Laravel. My goal is to use technology to help improve people's lives.
